Reform Legislation Made Imposing.

MADRAS. British India, January 13 .--The first of the new Indian councils be inaugurated under the Indian reform scheme embodied in the Montagu bill, giving the natives a greater hand in the government, was opened with an imposing ceremony here today by the Duke of Connaught, who recently arrived for a visit to India. The galleries of the council chamber were filled with notables of the city and distinguished tables of the city and distinguished

The Duke of Connaught has been given a cordial welcome in Madras, and there have been numerous demonstrations in his honor. The Duke of Connaught went to India for the purpose of participat-ing in the inauguration of the reform legislation, his visit being in lieu of one by the Prince of Wales, who, it was announced in a royal proclama-tion to India last summer, would not visit India this winter, the then being made that the Duke of Connaught would act in his stead A dispatch from Nagpur, India, January 2, said a boycott on the pro-posed visit of the duke had been voted by the Indian national congress.

MOTHER AND THREE BURN Mrs. Green Pulls Away From

Rescuer at Chardon, Ohio.

CHARDON, Ohio, January 15 .- Mrs. louis Green, aged thirty-eight, and her three boys, aged, one, three and six, were burned to death, when their little two-room house was described by fire on the outskirts of Chardon last night. When Mrs Green saw, that her children could not be saved, she refused to be rescued. How the fire started probably never will be known, because when Mrs Green rushed out of her home to give the alarm, she merely cried that her children were being burned up. Ther she ran back into the house and thre herself on the bed heside her boys.

A would-be rescuer, looking through window, saw the mother on the bed, reached through the window an started to drag her to safety, but si frew back her arm Mrs. Green's husband died to
